PRESS RELEASE

Bank of Maharashtra launches 'e-banking lounge'

Bank of Maharashtra, a premier public sector bank has launched 'e-banking lounge'—3G technology-enabled self banking option at branches—in Connaught Place in Delhi, Gadkari Chauk in Mumbai and Deccan Gymkhana in Pune.

At a function held at Deccan Gymkhana Branch in Pune, Shri. A.S. Banerjee, General Manager (IRM), inaugurated the first 'e-banking lounge' on 15.11.2010. Senior officials of the top management were present on the occasion.

'e-banking lounge' provides the facility to customers to do selected banking transactions online through 3-G (Third Generation) technology-enabled computers. 'e-banking lounge' will help them deposit cheques through cheque deposit machines and they can get the statement of account printed on their own without the help of branch staff.

The Bank has simultaneously opened two more 'e-banking lounges' viz., at Connaught Place Branch in New Delhi and Gadkari Chauk branch, Dadar in Financial capital Mumbai.

'e-banking lounge' at Mumbai was inaugurated by Shri. B.K. Piparaiya, General Manager at Gadkari Chauk Branch, Dadar, Mumbai. Senior officials from Mumbai Region were present.

'e-banking lounge' at Delhi was inaugurated by Shri. V.E. Dalvi, General Manager, IRM, CO at Connaught Place Branch. Senior officials from Delhi Region were also present.
